VOL. 4, NO. 69. PRICE FIVE CENTS

HE'S 104 YRS. OLD

FREDERICK SAUGRAIN, WHO IS AN INMATE OF MAYWOOD HOSPITAL TODAY.

NO ILL RESULT FROM RECENT FIRE

Believed to Be the Oldest Native
Born Missourian—Brief Sketch of a Truly Remarkable Old Gentleman.

Frederick Saugrain, father of Mrs. John Waddell, of this city, is 104 years old today. He has been an inmate of Maywood hospital since last Monday, when the home of his daughter, Mrs. Waddell, was destroyed by fire. Mr. Saugrain is blind and almost helpless, and it is doubtful if he lives until his next birthday anniversary.

Mr. Saugrain was born in St. Louis on March 24, 1806. His father, Dr. Antonio Francois Saugrain, was a native of France, and one of the first settlers of St. Louis, a contemporary of Laclède and Chouteau. He was a highly educated and cultured gentleman, especially along scientific lines, and was a close friend of Benjamin Franklin.

Frederick Saugrain's birthplace was a walled house in Cerre street, built with special reference to protection from the attacks of hostile Indians, which were of frequent occurrence at the time of its construction.

Mr. Saugrain was married early in life to Miss Eliza Provenchere, herself of a pioneer French family, and they lived for many years in the house where he was born.

Later the family moved to the Gravois creek neighborhood, where Mr. Saugrain followed farming during that period, becoming an intimate friend and adviser of the then ex-Captain U. S. Grant, and he was one of those who aided Grant in "raising" the log cabin in which he afterward made his home.

When the Civil war came on the Saugrains gave their allegiance to the Confederacy, and Frederick Saugrain's oldest son, Antonio Pierre, together with his cousin, Ben Von Publ, immediately joined the southern army.

Since 1888 Mr. Saugrain has lived alternately in Sedalia and St. Louis, making his home with his daughters, but for some years has resided exclusively in Sedalia.

Up to within a very few years Mr. Saugrain was extremely active, participating with keen enjoyment in hunting, fishing and swimming, being especially fond of the latter, and he is credited with having taught several of his grandsons the latter art after having passed his eighty-second birthday.

Mr. Saugrain has three children, daughters, living—Mrs. John Waddell, of Sedalia; Mrs. W. H. Pettus and Sister Eugenia, a nun in Sacred Heart convent, St. Louis. One son, Antonio Pierre, died about twenty-four years ago. He has several grandchildren and great grandchildren living in St. Louis and Sedalia.

The case of the state vs. U. H. Miller, an M. K. & T. shopman, charged with disturbing the peace, was called for trial before a jury in Justice J. B. Rickman's court today. After the introduction of evidence the jury returned a verdict of not guilty and in accordance the defendant was discharged.

C. C. Lawson represented Miller, while Dimmitt Hoffman acted as prosecutor. The jury was composed of W. W. Herold, W. T. Morris, A. J. Patton, Henry Kahrs, J. G. Dillard and Peter Hoffman.

A BETTER JOB NOW

LEE FOWLER TO ENTER FREIGHT AND PASSENGER DEPART-MENT OF KATY.

THE PROMOTION A DESERVED ONE

To Retire Tonight as Stenographer in the Office of Supt. Finney —Succeeds Mark Antes as Contracting Agent.

Lee T. Fowler, eldest son of O. F. Fowler, chief train dispatcher for the M. K. & T., who has been employed as chief stenographer in the office of Supt. N. J. Finney for some time past, tendered his resignation late Wednesday, and Friday morning will enter the passenger and freight department of the road in the capacity of contracting agent under Commercial Agent L. W. Mosher, vice Mark Antes, promoted to traveling freight agent.

Mr. Fowler's successor is not known at present, although in all probability it will be A. C. Davis, a former Sedalian, now employed at Houston, or O. G. Atkinson, another Sedalia boy, now employed by the D. & R. G. railway in Colorado.

Mr. Fowler is one of the Queen City's most energetic and promising young men. He has had considerable experience in various departments of the M. K. & T., and in each department has been universally conceded one of the road's most valued and faithful employees.

Legions of friends will join the Democrat-Sentinel in wishing him all possible success in his new line of work.

FOUND LITTLE FINGER

Explosion of Gasoline Almost Caused Fire—Finger Found in Door.

Tipton, Mo., March 24.—Great excitement was occasioned in this city at 3:30 o'clock this morning when an explosion of gasoline partially destroyed the shoe shop of J. F. Steinkus. The foundation of the building was loosened and part of the south wall of the building blown loose.

Flames immediately followed the explosion, but quick action on the part of the citizens subdued them.

When the fire was extinguished an investigation disclosed the fact that there was a can containing three gallons of gasoline still unexploded in the store and that the interior of the structure and the contents had been thoroughly saturated with kerosene.

Immediately after the explosion a man was seen running away from the building, coping from the alley way, in the back of the building, and going east. His path was marked with drops of blood.

Later a little finger was found in front of the back door of the burned structure, from which the unknown man was seen coming, and plainly showed marks of having been caught in the doorjamb.

The door had evidently been shut suddenly on it and in endeavoring to get away the injured man had jerked the finger off.

The building that was burned was owned by G. F. Steinkus and he carried $900 insurance on it and the contents.

THE BLACK HAND

425 KATY MEN MET

AN IMPORTANT MEETING HELD
BY EMPLOYEES AT GLASS HALL LAST NIGHT.

AN ORGANIZATION WAS PERFECTED

The American Railway Employees Investment Association Elected Officers—The Objects That Are to Be Attained.

A large number of the employees of the M. K. & T. Ry. Co. met at Glass hall last night and through the efforts of C. P. Curtis, the well known engineer of Parsons, Kan., perfected the organization of what is known as The American Railroad Employees and Investment association.

The purpose of the organization is to bring about closer relations between the employees, officers and owners of railways, with a view of obtaining from all legislative bodies fair and impartial hearings in matters pertaining to the conduct and operation of railroads.

The charter membership consists of 425 men connected with the road at this place in its various departments, who elected by vote the following officers and an executive committee, which latter consists of one member from each class of employees. The officers follow:

President—John L. Gold.
Vice President—Gillbert Owens.
Secretary and Treasurer—T. E. Gilliam.
The executive committee follows:
Clay Gorrell—Carmen.
R. S. Long—Blacksmiths.
H. T. Small—Painters.
H. Bronkhorst—Millmen.
John Donnelly, Jr.—Tinners.
W. D. Scoble—Cabinetmakers.
Milton Barde—Upholsterers.
F. F. Durham—Office men.
N. F. Hanepeter—Air men.
Pat Downs—Conductors.
Jno. Tapp—Trainmen.
Jno. Bowser—Engineers.
O. Embury—Firemen.

After the election of officers and committee the association was addressed by Messrs. M. C. Devine and Jno. Dillon, who forcibly brought out the facts that the time is at hand for the employees of railroads to muster their strength in behalf of their employers when assailed by unjust legislation.

Taken Back to Reform School.

John Wells, who some months ago was sentenced to serve three years in the Missouri Training School for Boys at Booneville, later escaping from the city, and who was recently rearrested by Chief of Police Boult, was taken to the reform school by Deputy Sheriff James Card at the noon hour today. He was sentenced for robbery from the person in the night time.

Sheriff Keeps Roll of Citizens Who

The Probe Report Is Ex-

Cairo, Ill., March 24.—Riot guns were ordered yesterday by the county commissioners. The firearms will be placed in the county courthouse, which includes the jail, for protection against future mob violence.

Repeating rifles were selected. Chains and padlocks for gates leading into the court house yard were ordered also.

Sheriff Nellis has posted the names of 100 members of the board of trade and commercial club who have agreed to respond promptly to call from the sheriff in case of future need.

The jail has been attacked twice within the past year by mobs, one attack resulting in the lynching of two prisoners and the other in the death of one member of the mob and injury of several others at the hands of the sheriff's deputies.

A special grand jury is now investigating the last attack. A report from this body is expected today. The inquirers must have most assiduously dug into the causes of the

HEALTH OF PUBLIC

SENATOR OWEN ADVOCATES THE ESTABLISHMENT OF NEW DEPARTMENT.

WANTS ANOTHER CABINET OFFICER

He's in Favor of the Conservation of Our National Resources, but the Health of Our People Is of More Importance.

Washington, D. C., March 24.—In a speech today in favor of the passage of a bill introduced by himself providing for the establishment of a department of public health, similar to the nine other departments of the federal government, Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, declared that, while he was in favor of the conservation of the natural resources of the nation, "the conservation of the life of our people is of far greater importance, and the conservation of the vitality and efficiency of our people is a problem of the first magnitude, demanding immediate intelligent attention."

He spoke against the bureau system of looking out for the public health, asserting that the question was of such great importance that it could not be handled efficiently except by a separate department with powers as great as those now enjoyed by any of the other departments of the government.

"We have had bureaus for one hundred years," he said. "They are scattered in eight departments. They have been disconnected and without coordination. They ever have been jealous of each other, the one nullifying and hampering the work of the other. They have been without a responsible head because of this subdivision and because the chief of the most important of these bureaus, the surgeon general of the public health and marine hospital service, cannot express an opinion or give information until he has consulted the secretary of the treasury."

The secretary of the treasury was selected as a cabinet officer, he added, "not because of his knowledge of the public health, but because he was an expert on finance." This government officer, he thought, should not direct government activities in fighting disease. He declared that in the case of certain reports on the bubonic plague on the Pacific coast "the bureau dealing with public health was easily suppressed by commercialism and its supposed interests, putting in jeopardy the national health, the national interests and the national wealth, and was required to withhold and suppress the truth in violation of section 4 of the quarantine laws."

Under a subordinate bureau, cooperation in the fight against disease is impracticable, he declared. The bureau has not sufficient dignity or power in an emergency, he continued. It has no national standing. It cannot take the initiative, but must always stand subject to the orders of a secretary too greatly influenced by mere apparent commercial and fiscal interest.

The bill introduced by Senator Owen would coordinate into one working body all of the various health agencies of the government. It pro-

PAID LAST TRIBUTE

THE DEATH OF MISS FRANCES
ARNOTT, FORMERLY RESI-DENT OF SEDALIA.

SHE DIED AT CHAMPAIGN, ILLINOIS

Was a Sister of Mrs. J. W. Tripp, of Sedalia—Rev. E. W. Clippinger
Conducted the Burial Service
There Last Monday.

The death of Miss Frances Arnott, a former Sedalia lady and sister of Mrs. J. W. Tripp, of this city, was written of as follows in the Champaign, Ill., Gazette of March 21:

Miss Frances Arnott died at her home, 204 West Park avenue, at 6:30 Saturday evening, after a brief illness with pneumonia, which acting on a heart which had not been working properly in years, made it impossible for the patient to recover.

The funeral service was conducted at the house at 9 o'clock this morning by Rev. E. W. Clippinger and the body was then taken to Marietta, O., for burial.

Miss Arnott had been a resident of Champaign about twenty years and was engaged in the millinery business here all that time and remained actively engaged at this business until within a week of the illness, which compelled her to remain at home.

During her residence in Champaign she made a large number of friends and these will mourn the death of one who was loyal to those she loved at all times. She left no relatives in this section of the country.

A friend says: "In the death of Miss Arnott, Champaign has lost one of its most earnest, energetic and justice loving business women. Her place cannot be filled. Her amiability, her friendliness in meeting her patrons, giving them a feeling of confidence that they would meet with fair dealing, that there was no misrepresentation; her generosity was unequalled; never a call for a contribution to charity but what she responded liberally, if the applicant of the cause for which they solicited was a worthy one."

"As a friend she was loyal and true and many are the women of Champaign and in the neighboring towns who were proud to be numbered as Miss Arnott's friends."

DEATH OF ELLEN ADAMS

Died at Home of Mr. Tillberry This Morning.

Mrs. Ellen Adams, one of Sedalia's oldest citizens, died from senility and pneumonia at the home of William Tillberry, 641 East Sixteenth street, at 4:30 o'clock this morning. She had been ill one week.

Mrs. Adams was married when a young woman. Her husband died fifteen months later and Mrs. Adams remained a widow throughout her life. She was about 87 years of age, although she said herself she did not know her exact age.

Funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. Daniel Healy, a former pastor of St. Patrick's church in this city, now of North Springfield, Mo. The interment will probably be at Kansas City.

Registered 87 Degrees Yesterday.

Got it down for future reference that the maximum temperature in Sedalia on Wednesday, March 23, was 87 degrees in the shade, and as a result several straw hats made their appearance.

BATTLE ON TRAIN

DRUNKEN MAN SLAYS PORTER,
CONDUCTOR, AND STANDS
OFF PASSENGERS.

FINALLY WAS SHOT DEAD IN CAR

Murderer Holds Police Off an Hour After Station Is Reached—The Dead Man Had Been Drinking Heavily.

Wilmington, Del., March 24.—An exciting battle in which three men were killed and several were injured, occurred on a north bound Baltimore & Ohio train yesterday. The fight began at Newark, Del., and ended in this city. The dead are: O. E. Wellman of Philadelphia, conductor of the train; Samuel Williams, the colored porter, and J. H. Bethew of Dillon, S. C.

John O. Willis, a park guard of Wilmington, Del., was shot in the hand and leg, and Matthew Hailey, of Wilmington, was shot in the leg, while others were grazed by flying bullets.

Bethew, who had been drinking heavily, quarreled with the porter, and shot him through the heart, killing him. Conductor Wellman remonstrated with Bethew, who, without a word, shot Wellman through the heart, and the conductor fell dead.

The murderer then stood off the passengers until the train reached Wilmington. When it came into the station a hurry call was made to the police station and a squad of patrolmen, reinforced by park guards and a posse of citizens and trainmen, ran to the scene.

The police called upon Bethew to surrender. As an answer he opened fire on the police and the crowd. Bethew is believed to have had at least 100 rounds of ammunition, for he succeeded in holding the posse at bay from 5:17 until 6:35 p. m. During this time many shots were fired on both sides, until finally all the windows of the car were riddled and travel over the Baltimore & Ohio was tied up.

When the battle had lasted about an hour the police asked aid from a fire company near by. The firemen, barricaded behind trucks and boards, played a stream of water upon the windows of the car, and Bethew, drenched with water, staggered to the platform. The police once more called upon him to surrender, but his reply was several shots in quick order from his revolver.

As Bethew emptied his revolver, Police Captain Evans fired a load of shot into his face. Notwithstanding this injury he kept on blazing away. Patrolman Boughman opened fire with a pistol and struck Bethew in the right arm. The desperate man tried to fire again, but the police closed in, and as they took hold of him he fell dead in the arms of a patrolman.

When Williams was shot he fell into a seat in the car, and all through the battle the dead porter sat with the appearance of one looking from the window.

Bethew was well dressed. While it was believed by some of the passengers who fled when the train reached Wilmington that the desperado was insane, other passengers stated that he appeared to be sane, but had been drinking.

"LOUD" SOCKS TABOOED

Knitted Ties Are to Be Worn With Closed Collars.

Back to the shades of oblivion for "passionate" socks, noisy neckties and spectacular shirts! No more will it be proper for the college youth to roll his trousers half way to his knees, and display hosiery which would make the flag of a matador look like a faded bunting.

Neither will it be correct for him to disport a tie which might make him think of an accident in a dye house. Fashion has decreed that colorings in men's haberdashery this spring and summer shall be subdued.

Socks are to be of the "whispered lisle" variety—that is, light and thin, say the dispensers of men's apparel. A few styles will be embroidered, but plain colors will be the general rule. The particular dresser will wear socks and tie to match. Knitted ties are much in evidence, worn with closed collars.

MELLOR AND A CLEAN SEDALIA.
Does any person in Sedalia believe for a moment that any one of the worthless and vicious vagabonds that infest the city will vote for J. W. Mellor for mayor, or that they will not do everything possible to bring about his defeat?

Isn't it true and doesn't every citizen know that to a man they are against him?

Does any one think that one member of the infamous Forum club will vote for Mellor for mayor?

Is any one insane enough to dream that Homer Phillips will order his henchmen to support Mellor?

Knowing the sentiment that exists among this class of undesirable citizens, can any one having the welfare of Sedalia at heart, who wishes to make it a better and cleaner city, hostate an instant in voting for Mr.
Mellor?

This contest is not one of personal friendship or good fellowship, but one in which a great principle is at stake, the principle of a city government conducted by men who are not selected by the vicious classes and who in consequence will not be under their domination and control.

In this election we have a man running for mayor who is absolutely free from slum influences, who not only is free, but who has publicly and boldly proclaimed his freedom and placed himself on record as neither asking for nor wishing support of this character.

Was ever an issue more closely drawn in any municipal race before, and can there be any question as to the dividing line in it?

Constantly we hear complaints of undesirable conditions existing in the city—conditions easily remedied—and now is put up to the citizens who complain a way to put a stop to those conditions quickly and effectively.

If they do not take advantage of the chance they will certainly have no one to blame except themselves, and will deserve no sympathy, even if things grow worse as they surely will should the objectionable element succeed in winning a victory.

The situation is one calling for serious thought and calm consideration, and then courageous action.

Let all who desire to better things in our municipal life work for and vote for Mellor and a cleaner Sedalia.

HAIR TO THE HUNTER:

Hail to the hunter! May he and his good wife, who met him on his emigration from the wilds, return safely to the American shores and bless the wedding of a son who knows how to earn his living by hard and honest work, as every self-respecting man should do.

Teddy will find a strenuousness of fairs awaiting him in the political jungle in these states that will make spoofendoo hunting tame in comparison. But he likes it. Possibly that is why the administration sent on a special messenger to meet him at Khartoum, bearing information at first hand of affairs political in present, with details of how it all happened.

Likewise, it may be, that the administration is endeavoring to forestall the question, Why is it thus? But peace be his, temporarily. He will strike the maelstrom soon enough and be called upon to decide the question, Am I Roosevelt, the republican trust buster, conservationist, progressive, or who am I?

PUBLICATION OF CAMPAIGN SUB- SCRIPTIONS.

Notwithstanding the strongest sort of opposition on the part of the republican members, the house committee has been compelled to yield to the popular demand and has reported out the bill to require publication of campaign contributions.

The effort to pigeonhole the measure was thwarted by the democrats.
Republicans in committee voted against the bill or did not vote at all.
But the prospects are good for the passage of the bill at this session. To take off the lid is dreaded by the g.
o. p. managers. There was a deliberate refusal after the last congressional election, on the part of some of the congressional managers of the president's own party, to file their accounts. What it cost to elect a republican majority is thus still a mystery. It is a phase of the old Quay motto: Addition, division and silence.

COULDN'T ANSWER THE QUES- TION.

"Would you consider an organization to buy all the coal lands in Pennsylvania a conspiracy in restraint of trade and a monopoly?" asked Judge Harlan during the argument of the Standard Oil case in the United States supreme court the other day.

The company's counsel was unable to answer, and yet the company goes into court under a plea in extenuation that its ownership of practically the entire oil business of the country was acquired by straight business methods, and the use of superior ac-men in conducting its affairs, aided by unlimited capital. The court's decision was a significant one.

Municipal elections last week in
New York and Maine were decidedly favorable to the democrats. The municipal elections soon to follow in Illinois, Indiana and some other western states will doubtless show a trend similarly ungratifying to the grand old party of privilege, plunder and plutocracy. With every new day the prospects for a great democratic landslide in the coming congressional elections grow brighter.

Rockefeller's former pastor, the Rev. Rufus P. Johnson, says the oil king once told him that his daily prayer was that he might be kept of the same mind and thought. It seems that his prayer has been answered.

The taste for art was over-developed in the San Francisco man, who stole a $10,000 painting because he admired it so much.

The First Lesson

In life should be to learn to save a part of what you earn.
Remember, it is not how much you earn; it's what you save that counts. If you are one of the men with a good income that gives up to it, there's danger ahead unless you stop it.
Remember there are lots of things that might happen over night when it would be convenient to lay your hands on some ready money. Make up your mind today to open a saving account.

SPLENDIDLY WITH THEIR PRODUCTIONS.

FROHMAN PLAYS DID WELL, ALSO

J. Herbert Mack, President of the Columbia Amusement Co. Sailed for Europe to inspect site for New Theater in London.

(By William S. Brewer.)

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.
New York, March 24.—This is the time of year that followers of events and affairs theatrical grow reminiscent, so with only two months of the theatrical season left and just a few new plays scheduled for presentation theatergoers can settle down to an enjoyment of the plays that have earned the right to live on indefinitely.

The Shuberts have done well, for their offerings have, with few exceptions, been well up in the grade of merit. "The City" will stand as one of the greatest productions. A keen rival to this is "Madame X," produced by Henry W. Savage, and the Lieblers have held their own with "Alas Jimmy Valentine."

The Frohman productions have also reached a high place, though in some instances the stars of this popular manager have had to work hard to make material that was not quite up to the standard. All of which speaks well for the Frohman players however. Miss Ethel Barrymore in "Mid-Channel," Miss Billie Burke in "Mrs. Dot," William Collier in "His

Aids Old Men

The sudden change from years of activity of both body and mind to the quiet of later years causes the human system to undergo many changes, chief of which is in the digestive organs.

It becomes harder and harder to get the bowels to move promptly and regularly and in consequence many elderly men suffer not only from the basic trouble, constipation, but from indigestion, headache, belching, sour stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar annoyances. It is first of all necessary to keep the bowels open and then to tone the digestive muscles so naturally. A violent cathartic or purgative is not only unnecessary but harmful, and something mild will do the work just as well.

After you have got through experimenting with salts and pills and waters of various kinds, and have become convinced that they do only temporary good at best, then try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is mild, gentle, pleasant-tasting laxative tonic that is especially adapted to the requirements of old people, women and children, and yet is effective enough for anybody. Your druggist, who has handled it successfully for a quarter of a century, will sell you a bottle for fifty cents or one dollar, but if you want to make a test of it before spending any money send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell and he will gladly send you a sample bottle free of charge.

This remedy is rapidly displacing all other forms of medication for the cure of stomach, liver and bowel trouble, and families like Mr. O. F. Wisner's of Sycamore, Ill., and Mrs. Carrie Collier of 325 N. Notre Dame street, South Bend, Ind., are now never without it in the house. They have tested it and know its grand value to every member of the family.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 500 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Lucky Star," and Francis Wilson in "The Bachelor's Baby," are Frohman's productions that deserve definite runs.

J. Herbert Mack, president of the Columbia Amusement Co., sailed to day for Europe to inspect a site for a theater in London. He is taking with him plans for the Columbia theater, at Broadway and Forty-seventh streets, and if favorably impressed arrangements will be made for the erection of a replica of that house exclusively for burlesque performances of the kind now given at the Columbia. This corporation now owns or has long leaseholds on thirty-eight theaters in this country. The success of its invasion of Broadway leads the Columbia concern to believe a burlesque house in London will be equally profitable.

Only once in a decade, or even less often, is a really original idea found for a farce, and when discovered it is sure to prove a veritable gold mine. This is proved by the success of "The Lottery Man," at the Bijou which deals with the story of a news paper man trying to raise money quickly by offering himself as the prize in a marriage lottery.

The Lenton season is anything but dull at the Lyric, where Clyde Fitch's last play, "The City," is being presented to capacity houses at every performance. The great human interest of this drama, its strenuous emotion, its vital moral lesson, its extraordinary psychological analysis of city life, its wonderful craftsmanship and its superb presentation have placed it in a position of absolute prominence among the offerings of the season.

At Daly's, Miss Maxine Elliott entered upon her ninth triumphant week in "The Inferior Sex" on Monday. She is the only woman in the cast. The comedy might have taken its coloring from the pages of Schopenhauer, for it deals with a misogynist who spends his time writing books decrying the opposite sex. The story told in the play is delightfully breezy.

Mary Mannering's engagement in Rachel Crother's drama, "A Man's World," is still announced at the Comedy as indefinite. Miss Mannering has unquestionably achieved the greatest success of her career in this play of artistic life in the metropolis.

At the Liberty "The Arcadians" has entered upon its third successful month, and will undoubtedly be seen there until the end of the season. "The Songs of the Arcady" are unquestionably the most winsome that have been heard on Broadway since "The Geisha" days or the run of "The Merry Widow."

"The Chocolate soldier has gone into its eighth month at the Casino, and is still the most popular entertainment in town, with throngs not only of those who have not yet seen the performance clamoring for admission, but included in its audiences nightly are many who have heard Strauss' sprightly music many times, and who still revel in its beauties.

Lew Field's production of "The Jolly Bachelors," at the Broadway, with Nora Bayes, is reaping a golden harvest which might satisfy a veritable Midas, and is in itself the most valuable proof of how thoroughly the New York public appreciates the biggest, jolliest and cleanest of musical entertainments.

"Bright Eyes," at the New York, continues to serve as a rejuvenating spring tonic for Broadway's jaded play patrons. Several new musical numbers and ensembles have been introduced, adding still further to the mirth, melody and pictorial attractiveness of the production.

There seems to be no abatement of the popularity of Blanch Ring in "The Yankee Girl," at the Herald Square. From present indications the piece should have an uninterrupted career in New York.

A bill of unusual strength at the Plaza is headed by Miss Nellie McCoy, who was recently featured with Mlle. Genie in "The Silver Star. This will be Miss McCoy's last week in vaudeville prior to a starring tour in a big musical production.

Fred Carno's London Comedy Co. presents for the first time in America its latest acrobatic pantomime in three scenes, entitled, "The Dandy Thieves," which is up to the high standard of their former successes. The four Mortons—Sax, Clara, Kitty, Paul—entered upon their farewell week in an entire new act, which gives each an opportunity to display ability as an entertainer. Clivette, "The Man in Black," who has a worldwide reputation as a hypnotist, magician and shadowgraphist, has a novel offering. Mosher, Hayes and Mosher, marvelous trick cyclists; La Petite Mison, a gifted impersonator of stage favorites; Hallen and Hayes, "The Daffy Dancing Comedians," Azard brothers, European acrobats, and Buss' Toy Terriers complete an excellent bill.

GRAFTED BY BOODLERS

STATE OFFICIALS OF NEW YORK MAKE SOME VERY SERIOUS CHARGES.

GRAFT LASTED FIFTEEN YEARS

"Black Horse Cavalry" Raided the Coffers of Fire Insurance Companies and Got Big Sums as a Result.

New York, March 24.—Raids of the Black Horse Cavalry at Albany upon the coffers of the fire insurance companies were dealt with at length at yesterday's session of the state insurance department's investigation of the amounts paid for legislation by the insurance companies. It was declared:

1. That in 1892 an alleged go-between, who said he represented "Big Tim" Sullivan, then an assemblyman and a member of the assembly insurance committee, demanded $10,000 of George F. Seward, president of the Fidelity and Casualty Co., to kill a bill to limit that corporation's business. Seward sent this message to Sullivan: "Go to hell."

2. That fifteen years ago Assemblyman Town and a member of the insurance committee, through a go-between, demanded $40,000 of Elijah R. Kennedy, legislative agent of the New York Board of Fire Underwriters, to kill a valued policy bill. Kennedy exposed this demand at a meeting of the committee on insurance, and later the go-between dropped from $40,000 to a few hundred dollars, but he got nothing.

3. That when he was fighting the Sullivan bill, aimed at the Fidelity and Casualty Co., President Stewart was approached by Assemblyman Goldberg, of Buffalo, who said that if there was money in it he proposed to have some of it, and wanted to know what there was in it for him to help beat the bill.

4. That as recently as 1908, Senator Thomas F. Grady made a bitter and successful fight to prevent the repeal of the Brady re-insurance law which was passed in 1904. It has been charged, after its way was brought through the legislature at a cost of $5,000. This law benefits three foreign re-insurance companies and injures 240 American companies.

5. That the state insurance department has been used to discredit certain companies and their management, to drive out existing officers and to make places for a new set of high salaried men.

6. That Lou Payn, former head of the state insurance department, helped George P. Sheldon, the legislative agent of the insurance companies, to keep tab on insurance legislation as recently as 1908 by having one of his henchmen, a clerk of the senate committee on insurance, inform Sheldon of all the secrets of the committee. For four years' work this henchman, Cornelius Shufelt, a lawyer of Chatham, N. Y., received only $334 from the fire companies.

7. Elijah R. Kennedy was able to recall the names of the members of the assembly committee on insurance of 1879, thirty-one years ago, but still forgets the names of the republicans leaders to whom he made "presents out of the yellow pup fund of 1901."

Postscript Cookery.

A teacher in a cooking school employed a typewriter to make manifold copies of some of her special recipes. The thing about the recipes that really interested the typewriter was the postscripts appended to each one.

"Why do you have to have postscripts in a cook book?" she asked. "That is the only way to make most women stick to directions," said the teacher. "In every recipe there is one point that is particularly important. Upon its observance success or failure depends. Most women when they get in a hurry are likely to slap things together any old way and trust to luck for the dish to turn out right. A postscript makes them slow up a bit. There never was a woman who wouldn't pay attention to a postscript, so by putting the most important part of a recipe into that I compel my pupils to follow instructions."

THE LEAGUE ADJOURNS

To Meet in Kansas City at the Call of the President.

At the night meeting of the conference of delegates from the cities, counties and commercial leagues, on the reformation of the tax system, last night in the criminal court room, the following resolution was submitted by Frederick N. Judson, chairman of the resolutions committee:

Whereas, gross inefficiency and inequalities result from the operation of the present tax system of Missouri, and

Whereas, such inequality and lack of efficiency lead to unjust distribution of the burdens of taxation, and

Whereas, this conference believes that such modifications of the constitution and statutes of the state should be made as may be necessary to secure efficiency and justice in taxation, therefore be it

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the chairman of this conference to draft a plan for securing the necessary reforms and to report the same to an adjourned meeting of this conference to be called by the president of the Missouri Municipal league at an early date.

The report of the committee was unanimously adopted. On motion of Mayo Foster, of St. Louis, Chairman Isador Loeb was made a member of the committee of five.

After a discussion of the best plans of getting a good representation at the next meeting, which is to be held in Kansas City at an early date, the meeting adjourned, after extending a vote of thanks to Sedalia and her citizens for the many courtesies received, at the call of the president of the Municipal league, L. E. Bates, of Webb City.

NO REASON FOR IT

When Sedalia Citizens Show the Certain Way Out.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the dangers of diabetes of any kidney ills when relief is so near at hand and the most positive proof given that they can be cured. Read what a Sedalia citizen says:

Mrs. T. B. Young, 714 E. Fourth St., Sedalia, Mo., says: "I think very highly of Doan's Kidney Pills. For two or three years I suffered from a dull ache and a numbness in my back, extending at times into my head. I was also subject to dizzy spells and at times there was a blurring of my sight. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Bard's drug store, greatly relieved me and I consider them the best kidney remedy I ever used."

THE GREATEST YET

Will Be the Minstrel Show of the Elks ext Tuesday.

At 7:30 o'clock this morning, in front of the box office of the New Sedalia theater, there was what might be termed a HEIN crowd, from the fact that there was just exactly 57 people in line with ten tickets each, wanting reserved seats. This increased until by noon most of the good seats were reserved. Of course there are still some good ones left, but any one wishing seats will have to hurry.

The rush is probably occasioned by the intense interest that is being manifested in this year's show. It is without question of a doubt the best show of its kind that has ever been put on in this city, and there was a large crowd last night at the rehearsal that, in a body, agreed that it was going to be a deal better than many professional minstrels.

Look at these funmakers: "Dutch" Henry Leist, "Fatty" Bossman, Eddie Lyons, the Primrose of Missouri; Bill Riley, the tallest and most graceful minstrel in captivity! Charlie Menefee, least said, best understood; Fred Hoxie, who picks money out of the air; E. G. Hoshra, the world famed red-haired nigger, and the one and only SENATOR Holmes Hall. These augh producers, together with his honor, C. CLAY KELLEY, will spring local gags that will make many of our prominent people squirm around in their seats. But an Elk is an Elk, and that's the answer.

The chorus of thirty-two ladies and gentlemen, all with gifted voices, are making the Elks' lodge room ring with melody each night, and Director Joe Bren says that in his eight years of experience he has never found better talent than is seen right here. "Why, this show will be worth two dollars instead of one, and anybody who misses it ought to kick themselves, and I am sure will kick themselves."

Another big rehearsal will be held tonight, one Friday night, Saturday and Monday nights. Then Tuesday the big show. Hear ye all—Tuesday at 8:15.

DR. COOK IS BROKE

A MISSIVE FROM HIS WIFE IN CHILE REVEALS CONDITION AND PLANS.

MAY ARRIVE IN NEW YORK TODAY

Money Made Off His Lectures Spent, Health Gone, Dispute Ended—Wife Kept Him From Defending Himself.

Bellingham, Wash., March 24.—Dr. William H. Axtell, a personal friend of Frederick A. Cook, yesterday received a letter from Mrs. Cook, dated Valparaiso, Chile, in which she says the explorer is broken in health, without funds and unable to continue his fight to establish his claim that he discovered the pole. Cook is expected in New York tomorrow. Dr. Axtell said:

"Mrs. Cook tells me in her letter that Cook made considerable money out of his lectures on the trip, when he first arrived in New York, but that he spent it in defending himself against bitter attacks from his enemies and before the Copenhagen decision was made public.

"Cook left New York later to escape contumely, says Mrs. Cook, and to go before the board of inquiry at Copenhagen as his own representative. Then Mrs. Cook followed him, met him in England, found him a nervous wreck and very ill.

"She writes that it was her fault that Cook did not appear publicly at the time he was unfavorably reported on. She says she took him to Holland, France, Italy and then to Spain, where they embarked for Buenos Ayres.

"From Buenos Ayres they went around Cape Horn to Chile. Cook is still very ill and will be in no condition to take up his fight for the honors which he still says should have been his."

Dr. Axtell added that, according to the letter, the explorer and his family will arrive quietly in New York today and will settle down for a quiet life.

"Mrs. Cook says," he continued, "that her husband has no funds with which to go to the Arctic regions after the proofs required by the University of Copenhagen and that if he had the necessary cash, he knows no one he could trust to do the work for him."

Brother Doesn't Know Plan.

New York, March 24.—William L. Cook, a Brooklyn milk dealer and brother of Dr. Frederick A. Cook, said last night that if the doctor was to arrive in New York today he was not aware of it.

He added that he had heard from the explorer recently—from what point he declined to say—and expected another letter soon.

Chinese Favor Woman Suffrage. China is to be one of the prime movers in the world-wide campaign for woman's suffrage, according to Lau Chi Chang of Canton, China, a graduate student in political science at the University of Wisconsin, who addressed the convention of the American Political Science association in New York. During the last three years meetings convened by women have had much influence in some of the minor political matters, particularly in boycotts. The women of China have been aroused by the general suffrage movement, and are expected to have a large share in the democratizing and occidentalizing of the empire.

MORE REVERSED THE "GAG"

More Truth in Old Stage Driver's Last Observation Than in His Previous Ones.

"As the coach jogged along the wild and mountainous trail the lone traveler asked the old stage driver about a certain outlaw that had terrorized that section some years back.

"O, you mean Bad Bill," drawled the old man reminiscently. "Well, Bill sartilly was a strenuous cuss. He held up this coach six times one winter, but outside of that he was all right."

"He must have been strenuous," commented the traveler.

"Yes, and when he got tired of holding up the coach he stole 20 horses and shot up a town just for sport, but outside of that he was all right."

"Whew! He must have been the limit."

"Pretty wild, pard; pretty wild. Then I recollect that he wrecked a medicine show, burned down a circus tent and tarred and feathered a minstrel man, but outside of that he was all right, stranger." The coach had now approached a big gray building that stood on a hill.

"What place is that?" asked the traveler.

"Why, that's the state prison. That's where Bad Bill is serving his time."

The traveler smiled sarcastically.

"Wonder you don't spring that gag about 'outside of that he's all right.'"

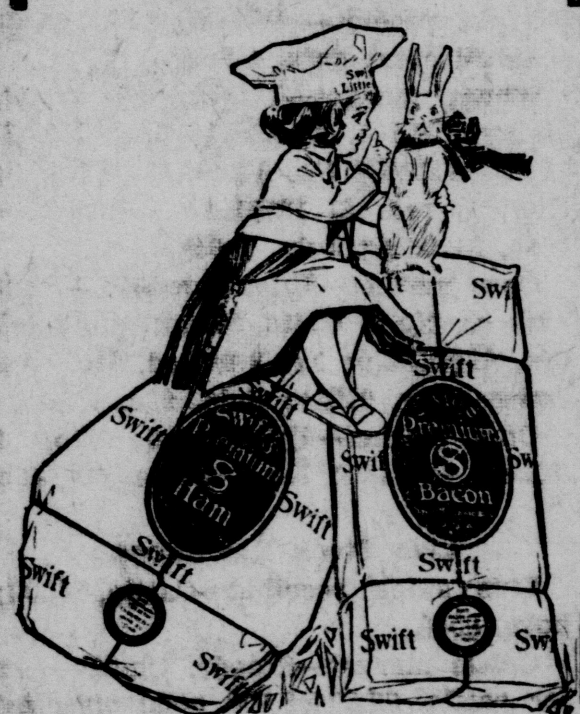

But the old man was equal to the emergency.

"O, no, pard," he chuckled, "I'll change it around a bit now. Inside of that he's all right. Get up, horses!"—Chicago Daily News.

AMUSEMENTS

AT WOOD'S OPERA HOUSE.

Messrs. William A. Brady and Joseph R. Grismer will present "A Gentleman From Mississippi" at Wood's opera house, matinee and night, Saturday, March 26, the new famous comedy which has made New York scream with laughter for more than twelve months past, and has tickled Chicago as no comedy has done of late years.

The same splendid cast, including Mr. Burr McIntosh and Mr. Will Deming that has been used in the Chicago production during the six months of its run there, will present the play here. One of the delightful features of the performance is the clever rendition of four different love stories, all of which are unfolded in different and amusing manners. It is the one play that has seemed weather proof both in Chicago and New York, having played to the capacity of the theaters in both cities during the most torrid periods.

"The Climax."

In "The Climax," the new dramatic offering which Joe Weber will present at Wood's opera house Sunday, March 29, Edward Locke, the author, is said to have displayed high literary ability, but in so doing has not made the mistake usual to highly educated dramatists, of forgetting that the audience has the right to be entertained.

There seems to be no doubt but that the absolute novelty of "The Climax" will stamp it as one of the greatest dramatic successes of the decade, and thus make Joe Weber's first venture into legitimate drama very successful indeed.

SEDALIA THEATRE.

The Griffith Hypnotic Comedy Co. The Griffith Hypnotic Comedy Co. is still holding forth at the Sedalia theatre, and the crowds are increasing each night. Some of the most comical tests that have ever been seen were used at last night's performance, and the famous tally ho ride set the entire audience to laughing. Mr. Griffith is without a doubt a wonder and none should fail to see his marvelous work. It is impossible for any broad and fair-minded person to doubt hypnotism after seeing one of his entertainments. This same attraction remains for the balance of the week, and as the program is

The Debt to Imagination. Millions have watched the kettle boiling and the skies flashing lightning, but it took the imagination of a Watt and a Franklin to start steam and electricity to moving the world. It is to imagination that earth owes most. It has taught us how to make life beautiful; to turn the stumbling blocks of nature into helpful forces; even now to make of unwilling nature herself a tireless slave to serve helpless man. Imagination is indispensable in creating science, art, literature and music. Therefore a bright, strong imagination is one of the finest things with which a child can come endowed into this world, and a child blessed with an unusual amount is emphatically a person of precious value to the times. For it is from such that progress and most advancements must come, because the new in the world is first constructed in the mind before it ever can be constructed of matter.

SMASH EGG TRUST

NEW HEN LAYS SO FAST SHE HAS NO TIME TO SET, SAYS A CLAYTON WOMAN.

CANNOT PERPETRATE THE BREED

Mrs. John Osborn Declares Record Is Egg a Day Each Without a Miss —Peers of Poultry Family as Egg Producers.

St. Louis, Mo., March 24.—Mrs. John Osborn, of Clayton, has joined the ranks of the foes of high prices as the woman egg trust buster.

After eight years' research, she says she originated a breed of chickens guaranteed to produce eggs every day in the year.

The only trouble with the new variety, she says, is that the hens are so busy laying eggs they forget to set and perpetuate their breed. They are a mixture of Rhode Island Reds, White Leghorns and Blue Andalusians.

Mrs. Osborn grows enthusiastic as she describes the new products of the chicken world in this fashion:

Talk about your egg machines! They sink into oblivion in comparison to the New Osborns. They are the peers of the poultry family as egg producers.

"They have had no time to go to poultry shows and have their toenails manicured, feathers powdered, and their combs nathed in vinegar to enhance their beauty. They lay eggs every day whether they have pretty prize ribbons fluttering from their coops or not."

With a few hens, each laying one egg every day, it is not necessary for city residents to study "Back to the Farm" literature in their dreams of how to return to the good old times when "ham and —" was a part of the daily breakfast menu, in the opinion of Mrs. Osborn.

A small city lot and very little feed and care is all that is necessary to produce enough eggs for each family to break the egg trust, if the new breed of chickens lives up to her statements.

JUST A REMINDER OF HOME

Good American Word "Gums" Has Been Adopted by a Large London Store.

If they were judged by the fiction they are most fond of Americans would be held to be a violently sentimental nation, and there would be considerable importance in the discovery by a correspondent that a window in a big London street has the word "Gums" posted on it.

"Our own word 'galoshes' does sound, we admit, rather grim and unbending compared with the homely and familiar 'gums,' but we believe that in the main Americans are content to come and visit our capital without caring much one way or the other. Our correspondent draws a different picture.

"How often," he says, "has not one noticed with a poignant pang of pathos the hungry faces of the sightseers from New York. All is strange to them. They gaze around them in vain endeavors to catch the slightest peg on which to hang a memory of the dear homeland which they have left, and all the while the char-a-banc rolls remorselessly onward, and the guide, with the megaphone neatly strapped over his mouth dilates on the objects at hand.

"We now approach St. Paul's cathedral, a hallowed shrine, erected by Sir Walter Raleigh. No gums. 'On our left the Mansion House, the residence of the Lord George Sanger; on our right the Bank of England, containing in a vault the Venus of Milo.' Still no gums."—London Globe.

COOKING THE EEL IN JAPAN

Patron Chooses His Delicacy, Which Is Prepared for the Table Before His Eyes.

Entering a Japanese restaurant, a guest who wishes broiled eels and rice is led to a tank of squirming fresh water eels and bidden to point out the object of his preference. The cook, who stands by, says the Delineator, selects the wriggling victim of his choice, strikes its head smartly upon a wood block and, squatting by it, grasps the creature's neck, inserts a knife in the left side of the vertebrae and dextrously runs it down to the tail, then rapidly applying his instrument to the other side of the backbone, repeats the process, leaving the eel split open.

Then, chopping the flattened eel into three-inch lengths, the pieces are plunged into boiling water to make the skin tender, long bamboo splints used as skewers are thrust through them, and they are then placed on rods over glowing charcoal and broiled brown, being plunged from time to time into a vessel that contains old soy of the color and consistency of molasses. These preparations concluded, the steaming eels are drained and placed in red lacquer boxes with rice and set before the customer.

HUSBAND KILLED CLERK

Will Jones Found Ralph Larimer With Wife and Shot Him.

Fort Scott, Kas., March 24.—Believing that his home had been ruined and his wife's love stolen, Will Jones shot and fatally injured Ralph Larimer, a young clothing salesman at the Liepman store, last night at 8:30 o'clock. The shooting occurred at Wall street and Scott avenue, one of the principal business corners of the city, and caused a sensation here, as both victim and assailant are well known. The wife of the slayer comes from one of the oldest families in this city, her father, Col. Nute Ury, for several years having held a position in the government service at Muskogee, Ok.

Mrs. Jones had left a picture show but a few minutes prior to the shooting, and had walked for only a block in company with Larimer, when the husband, who had followed them, without giving a chance for explanations, fired three shots, two of which struck Larimer. One bullet struck Larimer's left breast and penetrated the heart, causing death ten minutes later; the other struck the right leg below the knee.

Jones escaped, but was captured by Deputy Sheriff George Cowan a few minutes later in his home. He did not know until placed in jail that he had committed murder and was ignorant of the identity of the victim. The wife now insists Larimer had forced his attentions upon her after she had repeatedly told him that she was married and that her husband was waiting for her. The husband says, however, that they were walking arm in arm during the time he followed them and that she left him early in the evening.

The coroner's jury held that Larimer came to his death by a gunshot wound at the hands of Jones, and the latter will be held for murder in the first degree. The body of the dead man was taken to his former home at Galena this afternoon for burial.

He Wants a Divorce.

Alleging that his wife is guilty of adultery, John B. Shepard, better known as "Bert" Shepard, today brought suit in circuit court against his wife, Sarah Shepard, better known as "Della" Shepard. They were married here on March 21, 1908, and separated on October 20, 1909. W. W. Blain is plaintiff's counsel.

"Chollies" to the Creek.

The two court house "Chollies"—Menefee and Hanley—deputy sheriff and collector respectively, have fallen victims to the notorious hookworm and nothing will benefit them other than a day on the creek banks fishing.

In consequence the two will spend tomorrow fishing. They have not decided where or with what, but fish they will. Neither was ever known to catch any variety of the finny tribe, but relying on the assertions of Treasurer Lou V. Ware, they have decided to make an attempt.

In anticipation of their return the other court house officials are preparing for a sumptuous spread.

WANT A HANDBAG?

IF YOU DO, CATHERINE MANN-PAYZANT FURNISHES SOME "POINTERS."

ARE MANY STYLES AND PRICES

Some of the Latest Ideas in Jewelry Are the New Designs in Platinum—Necklaces of Gold Lace and Pearls.

(By Catherine Mann-Payzant.)
Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.
New York, March 21.—It is the accessories of dress that give the distinguished touch, marking one man as well dressed and another as hopelessly ordinary.

Two women will pass you on the street, the one from her chic little turban down to her hobble toe points presents the tout ensemble so sought by the French woman, while her companion will complacently don a crushed hat with a new gown and a pair of shoes which are tough and worn, and her bag will be disgraced before her fine new gloves. Better far would it have been to have spent a little less on some one article, that all might have been in harmony.

Bags and pocketbooks have become a fetching addition to the costume. It may give a color note, make a pleasing contrast or carry out the color scheme. It is always a point of consideration by the "good dresser." Often there are several of these bags, perhaps one for each gown, or one for evening, one for afternoon, one for shopping, etc., for the accessories of dress must be as marked for appropriateness as the gown itself.

The bags offered today are for many purposes, are of various shapes, materials and prices. The hand bag so almost universally carried may be large and square, or of a smaller size, according to one's wishes.

Those of the larger sort are fitted with a purse and memorandum book, and in a side pocket are a number of toilet aids—just enough for a shopping excursion in the midst of which one will take luncheon down town with some friend.

With these aids at hand it is possible in the dressing room to obliterate the wear and tear of the morning's fatigue before passing to the table. The amount of small things that may be carried without overcrowding is rather a marvel, and yet there is room for the small packages picked up at the notion counters.

Such bags as those described are in a coarse grained leather to be had in many popular colors, though those of dark brown are best liked and most serviceable. Beaver skin is one of the most fashionable leathers. Seal skin, if one can afford it, is one of the most serviceable and durable of all bags. One in this leather had a square bottom, while another was in bell shape, plain of finish, fastened with gold clasps and a leather handle set in with gold rings and clasps. These are also provided with the books, change purse and other small belongings now considered essential to this bag.

The "birship" shape has invaded the domain of bags also, and has many compartments clasped together by one frame; a model shown was in brown beaver, and on its side was a monogram done in large gold letters, much larger than the conservative woman will care to display. The leathers best liked, in addition

THEY FILL THE NEW HOUSE COMMITTEE ON RULES—ELECTED LAST NIGHT.

"UNCLE JOE" AGAIN IN SADDLE

Result of Insurgents' Rebellion Annulled and Fight Must Be Renewed—Fake Show Followed by Steam Rollers.

Washington, March 24.—Cannonism has arisen from its ashes. As the result of the action of the republican caucus last night, Cannonism, as well as Cannon, is again a national issue. Six Cannon henchmen, whose records in every detail identify them with the reactionary influences within the republican party, after a stormy session lasting from 8 o'clock until midnight, were chosen by the caucus to fill the republican places upon the new rules committee of the house.

In spite of the rebellion of the insurgent republicans, whose votes, in addition to those of the democrats, put through the Norris resolution last Saturday providing for a larger rules committee minus the speaker, the new committee is to be controlled as long as the "Iron Duke" is in the chair.

The machine's steam roller flattened out the insurgents in the caucus with ease. A fake show of free election was provided, but the whole affair as well could have been settled in fifteen minutes.

Having a majority in the caucus bound to his organization, Cannon passed out his "slate" and the majority of the caucus endorsed it. The insurgents, having attended the caucus, are required to accept its verdict by all the laws of party politics. This is the new committee:

John Dalzell, of Pittsburg, Pa., Cannon man, member of the old rules committee, representative of the United States Steel corporation district, conservative in all railroad, tariff and trust legislation.

Walter I. Smith, of Council Bluffs, Ia.; Cannon man, member of the old rules committee, an anti-Cummings "reactionary" tariff standpatter and conservative.

Henry S. Boutell, of Chicago, Ill.; Cannon man, tariff standpatter, friend of the Beef Trust, conservative in railroad and trust matters.

J. Sloat Fasset, of Elmira, N. Y.; Cannon man, tariff standpatter, conservative and leader for years in New York republican machine politics.

George P. Lawrence, of North Adams, Mass.; Cannon man, chief worker in the "Crane machine," conservative and standpatter.

Sylvester S. Smith, of Bakersfield, Cal.; Cannon man, standpatter, conservative, who is charged with Southern Pacific affiliations.

Tolerton Says Pheasants Give the Stork Cold Shoulder.

Jefferson City, March 24.—State Game and Fish Commissioner Jesse A. Tolerton yesterday advertised for 500 old hens of a motherly disposition. He has about five hundred Hungarian pheasants and he desires the hens for hatching out the pheasant eggs. Pheasants will not hatch their eggs when they are in captivity.

If Tolerton's efforts to raise Hungarian pheasants prove successful, he will presently be able to stock the entire state with these birds. That is the object he now has in view.

City Employees Get Raise.

Louisiana, Mo., March 24.—City officials of Louisiana are of the opinion that the city council is composed of an exceptionally fine body of men, as the council has just raised the salary of a number of officials $7.50 a month.

This raise gives the city treasurer $45, clerk, $47.50; marshal, $47.50, and the street commissioner $77.50. Members of the council state that the increased cost of living caused them to authorize the raise.

to those already mentioned, are of English Morocco, mottled pig skin, also the plain variety, alligator, grained walrus. Sometimes the lining is of thin, fine skin of dressed kid, or they may have moiré linings, or those of heavy silk. Some of the clasps of these bags are set with semi-precious stones.

Other styles of bags are of flowered silk or of embroidered satin mounted upon metal frames. A number of lovely bags displayed last week were of old tapestry overlaid with gold braid. They were large and square, with strap handles.

Some of the latest ideas in jewelry are the new designs of platinum set with diamonds. It is called the cobweb jewelry. The platinum is woven into beautiful lacy designs, into which are set all sorts of stones, the favorite of which is the diamond.

Beautiful hair pins of this pattern are very lovely against the coronet braids of the day. Lockets of enamel, covered with a pattern of platinum with a design of diamonds set in the midst of it, are of such workmanship that it is a pleasure to wear them. They are very fetching with the new linen gowns. As the enamel background can be secured in any color perfect harmony can be carried out in the costume.

Necklaces of lace of gold and pearls mounted on a black velvet band of the "soutoise" variety extend half way round the neck and are held together in the back by two small chains. The tassels cross in front and form a central ornament. Beautiful lacy fillets of platinum, gold or silver lace set with semi-precious stones are to be had, and a brooch that resembles a jabot had one large stone in the center.

For callarless gowns serpents of supple gold are wound around the neck, the head, with its ruby or emerald eyes, in front.

The neck and wrist ribbons of black velvet, embroidered in Louis XV bow knots, with fine pearls and diamonds in their centers, are being revived.

Will Return to Old Position.

Mrs. Maud Marquis, for the past six months employed in the collection department of the Bell Telephone company, tendered her resignation to S. R. Smith, local manager, late Wednesday, and will shortly resume a former position at a local laundry. Her successor has not been named.

Voted $38,000 for Waterworks.

Huntsville, Mo., March 24.—More improvements will be made in Huntsville this season than for many years, as a bond issue of $38,000 has just been voted to install a waterworks system and to buy the electric light plant. Other improvements to be made are a $50,000 hotel and a $25,000 jail. These various improvements are expected to add materially to the value of property in the town.

RUSSELL.

Pastor Brooklyn

Palm Sunday the Lost Opportunity

Text, "If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! But now they are hid from thine eyes."

Correspondence of the Democrat-Sentinel.

Allentown, Pa., March 20.—Pastor Russell, of the Brooklyn Tabernacle, delivered the following sermon here today: Little did the Jews understand the momentous importance to them of the event which Christians commemorate on Palm Sunday. It will be remembered that the incident occurred at the close of our Lord's ministry—three and a half years after his baptism at Jordan and five days before his crucifixion. The Jewish Sabbath had been spent in rest at Bethany. Lazarus, whom Jesus awakened from the sleep of death, with his sisters Mary and Martha, prepared for Jesus a banquet, and when the Sabbath closed the supper was eaten. It was at that time that Mary brought forth the box of perfume, spikenard very valuable, and therewith anointed our Lord's head and feet. It was the same occasion on which Judas, in a wrong spirit, had murmured against this expression of his loving devotion; that it was a waste; that preferably, the money should have been given to the poor. It was then that the Master defended Mary and announced that the anointing was for his burial (which occurred later the same week), and suggested to the disciples, "The poor ye have always with you. And whosoever ye will ye do them good; but me ye have not always."

The next morning, the first day of the week, corresponding to our Sunday, Jesus made ready for his triumphal entry into the city of Jerusalem as the Jewish king, according to the custom of the Jewish kings riding upon an ass and hailed and acclaimed by the populace. The incident had been foretold by the Prophet Zechariah in great detail, saying, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem; behold, thy king cometh unto thee; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass" (Zechariah ix, 9).

Prophecy Must Be Fulfilled.

When the apostles had brought the ass and Jesus sat thereon, the large concourse of people (which had come from Jerusalem to see Jesus because of his awakening of Lazarus) shouted aloud. They were filled with enthusiasm and, after the manner of the time, some broke off palm branches for the ass to step upon; others laid their garments in the way and thus formed, as it were, a carpet in the road leading to Jerusalem near by. The shout of the people was just as the prophet had declared. They hailed Jesus as the promised Son of David, the Messiah long waited for. On previous occasions, when they sought to make Jesus a king, after witnessing his marvelous works, he withdrew himself from them, to wait for their ardor to cool, knowing that the Father's time was not yet due. But now he knew that his hour was come and hence, instead of hindering, he helped on with the enthusiasm by sending for the ass, etc. Prominent sectarian Jews present, although unable to account for the miracle, were unprepared to think of Jesus as the true Messiah, or anything short of an imposter in that role. When these heard the multitude shouting and addressing Jesus as the Messiah they were offended and sent word to Jesus that he should restrain the ignorant people who were thus acclaiming him.

But instead of forbidding the ovation Jesus intimated that it was the proper thing, that because the Prophet Zechariah (ix, 9) said, "Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem!" therefore there must be a shout. If the people had not shouted, rather than have the prophecy go unfulfilled, Jesus said the very stones would have cried out.

En route to Jerusalem Jesus halted the ass and the procession at the top of the Mount of Olives, and overlooking the Holy City, wept while he pronounced his sentence upon it—Unworthy! Unappreciative! As the evangelist declares, "Israel knew not the time of her visitation." The time for Israel to receive the king had come and they were not only ignorant of the matter collectively, but they were not in the heart condition to understand or appreciate. Jesus cried, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathered her chickens under her wings, and ye wouldst not!" (Matthew xxiii, 37).

For three and a half years he and his faithful apostles had been declaring that the kingdom of God was at hand; that the people should repent and believe the good message. And even six months in advance of this John the Baptist and his disciples had similarly preached.

After those four years of faithful preaching throughout the length and breadth of Palestine, the nation was apparently as unprepared for Jesus as at the first. Hence our Lord's following words, "Therefore I say unto you, Your house is left unto you desolate! Ye shall see me no more until that day when ye shall say—Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord!" That day has not yet come. Meanwhile the Jewish nation was there cast off from fellowship with God, as the prophet declares, "Because they knew not the time of their visitation."

Israel has been outcast from national favor for more than eighteen centuries. Thank God the day is near at hand, when, at the second coming of Messiah, his kingdom shall be turned over to them. And then, as he declares, they will be glad to say, "Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord." The long centuries of persecution and separation from God's favor will have brought that people to a humbler condition of heart, where they will be glad to receive of divine grace upon divine terms. To this great event St. Paul refers us in Romans xi, 27-34.

Although God foreknew all that had happened the offer of the kingdom to Israel was just as bona-fide, just as genuine, as though he had not known it. God always does his part! What-ever failure there is in any matter of contract belongs to humanity.

If thus we have before our minds

the origin of Palm Sunday and what it signified as the climax of the test of natural Israel in respect to Messiah, we are prepared to go further and to note that in God's providence there is a similar test for us Christians.

"Enemies for Your Sakes."

St. John emphasized particularly the fact that the rejection of the Jewish nation, because of their rejection of Messiah, did not apply to all the individuals of that nation. As the Prophet Isaiah had foretold (Romans ix, 27-33) there was a small, faithful section or "remnant." This remnant accepted Christ and were by him accepted and became the nucleus or foundation of Spiritual Israel on the Day of Pentecost. Thus we read, "He came unto his own (nation) and his own received him not (as a nation); but to as many as received him, to them gave he liberty (privilege) to become sons of God, even to them that believed on his name; which were begotten not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God"—at Pentecost (John i, 11-13).

Thus so far as the spiritual part of God's great promise to Abraham is concerned it has passed from the Jewish nation; but there still remains for them a glorious earthly portion, to which they will be introduced at our Lord's second coming. Then their sins will be cancelled, and as a people the Hebrews will return to Divine favor and will inherit the earthly features of the promise made to their fathers. Then, through them, God's blessing will be extended to all nations and peoples under Israel's New Covenant, which will then become operative at the hands of their great Mediator—the Christ, the Messiah in glory. But by that time the election of the saints of this Gospel Age will be complete and the Messiah in glory will include Jesus the Head and the Church his Body—joint heirs with him in his kingdom—joint heirs with him in the spiritual features of the great Abrahamic promise (Galatians iii, 29).

All this is clearly stated by the Apostle in Romans xi, 25-32. But somehow our eyes of understanding as Christians have been hidden so that, until of late, we have not seen these lengths and breadths, these heights and depths of Divine Love and Wisdom and arrangement. The fact that we now see these things is a corroborative evidence that they are nigh at hand. Just so it was at our Lord's first advent. Many things

When the doctor says you must take Cod Liver Oil he means Emulsified Oil and not the crude oil which is very heavy and hard to digest.

Scott's Emulsion

is the world's standard preparation of Cod Liver Oil; it is very easily digested and immediately absorbed, and will not upset the stomach like the crude or plain oil.

pertaining to that time were completely hidden until the time of their fulfillment came, and then only the "Wise Virgins" were so blessed, so assisted, that they triumphed their lamps effectively and were enabled to see these beauties in the Divine Plan.

The Time of Our Visitation.

Apparently very few of God's people, until recently, have noted the fact that Spiritual Israel has had a parallel history to that of Natural Israel. Few have seen that these are dealt with all through the Scriptures as type and antitype. Few have noticed that from the death of Jacob to the death of Jesus finds its exact parallel of 1,845½ years between the death of Jesus and our day. Few have noticed that in both cases there is a nominal and a real Israel. The nominal Jewish system was tried and all but the "Israelites indeed" failed. Likewise will be the experience of Spiritual Israel. The nominal Christian systems will be tried, and all will fail except the spirit-begotten and faithful. As only a remnant or small number were found in the proper condition at the first advent, so the Scriptures clearly intimate that only a small number will be found sufficiently saintly and zealous and loyal to the Lord and the principles of his Truth in the end of this age, to graduate with first honors.

As there was a special period of testing and trying at the close of the Jewish Age, lasting for forty years, so, the Scriptures clearly indicate, there is a special sitting and testing due to come to Christendom during the closing forty years of this Gospel Age before the inauguration of the glorious Millennial blessings. As the trials and tests came upon the Jews in a subtle manner, to test their faith and obedience, so even more subtly must we expect will be connected with the trials and testings in the harvest time of this Gospel age. Of this time the Lord through the prophet said, "Who may abide the day of his presence, and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; and he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord acceptable sacrifices" (Malachi iii, 2, 3).

Both Houses of Israel.

Natural and spiritual Israel are contrasted. The Lord through the prophet foretold that Messiah would be "for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offense for both the houses of Israel"—to natural Israel and to spiritual Israel. We have seen how the first house tumbled on that Palm Sunday, celebrated today. They stumbled "because they knew not the time of their visitation," they did not know that the time had come for the establishment of the kingdom; hence they were not alert to their privileges and failed to be in the proper condition of heart to receive the blessings. Or we might state the matter reversely and say that those who did not know and accept the Messiah were those whose heart were not in the right condition, else they would not have been left in darkness (1 Thess. v, 4).

Many things indicate to us now that we are living in a time corresponding to that Palm Sunday! Many things imply that Christendom is undergoing its great test and that only the fully consecrated of heart and life will be accepted of the Lord as his jewels, and be granted a share with the Lord in his kingdom. Many things imply that we are now in the time when the true people of God are being divided into two classes, as pictured for us by our Lord in the parable of the wise and foolish virgins. As only the wise virgins were prepared to enter into the marriage, so only the consecrated ones, the polished jewels of the Lord will be accepted as fit for the kingdom and be granted a share in the glorious resurrection change which will precede the great time of trouble, in which the foolish virgin class, at though not of the world, will participate with the world.

True that great time of trouble will usher in the glorious Millennial dispensation, in which the church in glory with the Great Redeemer, will pour out upon all mankind the wonderful restitution blessings which God has promised by the mouth of all the holy prophets (Acts iii, 19-23). True, the foolish virgins may subsequently get the oil and subsequently have a glorious future, but they will lose the choice place of Divine favor and blessing. They can not be of the bride class, but will receive the blessings under the figure of "the virgins, her companions that follow her" (Psalm xiv, 14).

It is in order for all of God's people who now get awake from the slumber of worldliness, which has long stupefied them, to join hearts and voices in a great shout—the shout that the kingdom is at hand! The shout of hosanna to the Son of David! And that the time is at hand for the fulfillment of the passage "Gather together my saints unto me, saith the Lord! those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice. They shall be mine, saith the Lord, in that day when I come to make up my jewels" (individually) (Malachi iii, 17).

"See That Ye Refuse Not Him." As the Jewish nation was not ready to receive Jesus as its king, on that first Palm Sunday, neither is Christendom now ready to receive Him at His second advent. As it was only the "Israelites indeed," in whom was no guile, that then knew the voice of the Shepherd, so it will be here an individual matter. The

Isn't It Just Like a Woman?

PEOPLE'S PULPIT

Laodicean period of the church's history is upon us (Revelations iii, 17). The nominalism of our day is fully portrayed by our Lord's words. Christendom boasts that she is rich and increased in goods and has need of nothing; and knows not that she is poor and miserable and blind and naked. The Lord now stands at the door and knocks. He offers Himself to the "Israelites indeed." Ours is Palm Sunday in the highest sense of all. How are we receiving the great blessings which betoken the parousia of the Master? Do we hear His knocks? Have we opened our hearts? Are we searching His Word and listening to His voice and seeking to do His will in all things? To all such, very shortly, we believe, will come the greater and fuller Pentecostal blessing, the resurrection "change" from the glory of character merely to the glory of person as well, when we shall see our Redeemer as He is, and share His glory. As St. Paul says, "See that ye reject not him that speaketh from heaven!" Greater light, greater privilege, greater blessing every way are ours than were those enjoyed by the Jews at our Lord's first advent. These privileges and blessings are our tests. Let us be faithful. Let us present our bodies living sacrifices and with renewed zeal seek to glorify our Lord in our bodies and our spirits, which are His (I Cor. vi, 20).

Those who have the eyes to see and the ears to appreciate the voice now speaking from heaven should be alert to hail Him Lord of all, to accept Him as their Redeemer and king and voluntarily to accept Him as their Redeemer and King and voluntarily to present themselves to Him and His service, not waiting for the time when He shall reveal Himself in power and great glory to the world in general. The Lord is now looking for saints, for overcomers, valiant, faithful, persevering, and thoroughly devoted to Him and to His cause, of righteousness, and thoroughly opposed to sin and especially active in overcoming its domination in their own hearts, in their own minds, in their own bodies. Such the Master pictures as His joint heirs, priestly kings, sitting with Himself in His throne of glory and world dominion.

NOW FIGHT ALONE

SYMPATHETIC STRIKERS RETURN TO THEIR WORK IN PHILADELPHIA.

CAR MEN TO PLAY A LONE HAND

Said That 30,000 "Sympathizers" Went Back to Their Jobs Yesterday—Closed Shop Proposition Is Rejected.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 21.—The striking car men have been left to shift for themselves by the State Federation of Labor and local unions that maintained a sympathy strike for two weeks.

There will be no state-wide strike, and the general strike here is over. More than 30,000 men returned to work yesterday. It required all the influence C. O. Pratt could exert to keep the car men intact.

Last afternoon the car men met to consider the proposals submitted by Mr. Eral Tuesday night. Pratt asked for a vote. When the slips were counted nearly all of the 1600 men in the meeting were on record as favoring a continuance of the strike.

Despite Pratt's promise to the men of continued contributions, the unions that have been contributing are getting tired of the drain.

The directors of the Rapid Transit company said that, while they want to be fair with the men in the matter of wages and hours, they will not consent to a settlement which includes a closed-shop proposition.

WHY SALVES FAIL TO CURE ECZEMA

Scientists are now agreed that the eczema germs are lodged not in the outer skin or epidermis, but in the inner skin. Hence, a penetrating liquid is required, not an outward salve that clogs the pores.

We recommend to all eczema patients the standard prescription Oil of Wintergreen as compounded in liquid form known as D. D. D. Prescription. A trial bottle of this D. D. D. Prescription, at only 25 cents, will instantly relieve the itch. We have sold and recommended this remedy for years, and know of wonderful cures from its use. We recommend it to our patrons.

BAD STOMACH

My Stomach Is Going From Bad to Worse.

Yes, it's true; thousands of people cannot eat the simplest meal without having it lie on the stomach like a lump of lead, causing misery, sour stomach and gas eruptions.

And later, when the stomach has gone from bad to worse, there will be longer periods of food fermentation, and then dizziness, biliousness, sick headaches and nervousness.

If your stomach is out of order, if it doesn't feel right after meals, go today and get a 50 cent box of Mi-na stomach tablets. In a few minutes after the first dose, the misery will disappear, and you will be thankful.

Then go right on taking Mi-na for a few days. It will build up the stomach, unclog the liver, purify the bowels and make you entirely satisfied with your stomach in a few days.

Mi-na stomach tablets are made from the best prescription for stomach troubles ever written. They are sold by druggists everywhere and by W. E. Bard Drug Co. and are guaranteed to cure indigestion, acute or chronic, or money back.

Booth's Pills are best for torpid liver and constipation. 25 cents.

S.S.S. THE REMEDY FOR SORES AND ULCERS

There is but one way to cure an old sore or chronic ulcer, and that is to remove the cause that produces and keeps it open. No matter where located, any sore that remains until it becomes chronic does so because of impure blood; the circulation constantly discharges its polluted matter into the place and it is impossible for nature to heal the sore. S.S.S. heals sores and ulcers by purifying the blood. It removes every trace of taint or impurity from the circulation, and thus completely does away with the cause. No local application reaches below the infected flesh at the spot, and for this reason can have no curative effect on a sore or ulcer; while such treatment is being used alone, the germs and impurities are constantly increasing in the blood and the sore is bound to grow worse. When S.S.S. has cleansed the blood and enriched and purified the circulation the place begins to take on a more healthy appearance, the different symptoms show improvement, the flesh around the ulcer gets firm, new skin and tissues are formed, and aided by pure, rich blood, nature provides a perfect and lasting cure. Under the tonic and blood-purifying effects of S.S.S., the system is built up, and those whose health has been impaired by the drain and worry of an old sore will be greatly benefited by its use. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.
